The common curriculum integrates curricular pathways across all schools and colleges with adar experiences offered across campus. Spanning the entire student journey, the commonlum defines the learning objectives and learning outcomes that make up a CU Boulder undergraduate experience. It ensures that all students are prepared as civically engaged citizens and leaders, lifelong learners, and contributors to a thriving future

CU Boulder students will be able to negotiate increasingly complex information environments and to understand different modalities of information, how information is produced and valued, and their own involvement and participation in informationandscapes as they create new knowledge.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Graduates of CU Boulder will be able to:

- 1. Practice inquiry as an opemded, social process of evaluating information and participating ethically in communities of learning.
- 2. Analyze how social, legal, technological, and economic factors affect the creation, dissemination, accessibility and use of information.
- 3. Recognize that information evolves and emerges from particular contexts and that authority and ways of knowing are letinized within particular situations.

Skill: Critical Thinking

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

CU Boulder students will be able to conceptualize and synthesize an original belief about or solution to an issue through reasoned questioning, evaluation, and judgmeatived from rigorous analysis, interpretation, inference, observation, discussion, and/or experience, and then to apply the finding in an intellectually transformative way, with an understanding of its relevance and implications.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Skill: Communication

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

CU Boulder students will be able to use appropriate media (written, spoken, visual, symbolic, digital) for effective expression, argumentation, and communication of ideas and sentiments to audiences.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Graduates of CU Boulder will be able:

- 1. Write and speak logically, clearly, and with originality, using the process of composition to enhance intellectual discovery and express complex thought.
- 2. Demonstrate facility with the fundamentals of persuasion as these are adapted to a variety of situations and audiences.
- 3. Demonstrate advanced facility in the modes of communication most relevant to their particular majors or prospective professions.
