

Principles of Microeconomics

ECON 2010 - Fall 2015

Textbook, Web Platform and Clicker

The textbook for the class is N. Gregory Mankiw, Principles of Microeconomics, 7th Edition (2015), by South-Western Cengage Learning.

You will need to enroll in the web portal MindTap; access can be obtained at the CU Bookstore or directly online. Through MindTap you will have access to additional learning material and to weekly problem sets which will be graded. The best way to login into MindTap is through the learning platform of the University, Desire2Learn at <https://learn.colorado.edu/>

You will also need an i>clicker. You can purchase it at the CU Bookstore, if you do not have one already. We will use clickers regularly to review examples and to solve problems. Please make sure to register your clicker at <https://cuconnect.colorado.edu/uPortal/index.jsp>

Weekly Assignments and Clicker Questions

I will assign weekly problem sets that will be graded. A portion of the questions in the problem sets will aim at reinforcing your understanding and mastering of the material, while a portion will be representative of the type of questions that you will get in the midterm and final exams.

Grading

Your final grade will be determined according to the following percentages

Midterm 1 25%

Midterm 2 25%

Final 30%

MindTap Problem Sets 15%

Clicker Questions 5%

The in-class graded clicker sessions will count as follows: 2 points for a correct answer, 1 point for an incorrect answer, 0 for no answer. The total score for the Clicker Questions will be computed by adding all the scores while discarding the lowest 6.

Rules of Conduct

Academic Integrity. All students of the University of Colorado at Boulder are responsible for knowing and adhering to this institutions policy regarding academic integrity. Cheating, plagiarism, fabrication, lying, bribery, threatening behavior and assistance to acts of academic dishonesty are examples of behaviors that violate this policy (see <http://www.colorado.edu/policies/academic-integrity-policy> for more information). Ordinarily, a student engaged in any act of academic dishonest will receive a failing grade for the course. In addition, all incidents of academic misconduct shall be reported to the Honor Code Council. Depending on its findings, students who are found to be in violation of the academic integrity policy will be subject to non-academic sanctions, including but not limited to university probation, suspension, or expulsion. The Honor Code Council can be contacted by email at honor@colorado.edu or by telephone at 303-725-2273. Additional information regarding the University Honor Code is available at <http://www.colorado.edu/policies/student-honor-code-policy> and at <http://honorcode.colorado.edu/>.

Electronics in Class. Cell phones must be turned off. Any sort of use of cell phones in class will not be tolerated and anyone violating such rule will be asked to leave the lecture hall. Computers are permitted in lectures. However, they must be used only for course-related purposes. If you use your laptop for class purposes, you are required to sit in one of the last three rows of the lecture hall. Uses for any other purpose impose negative externalities on others and are inappropriate during class time. For these reasons, anyone who uses computers for non-course-related purposes must leave the lecture hall.

University Policies

The University adheres to the standards for student privacy rights and requirements as stipulated in the Federal Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 (see <http://www.colorado.edu/registrar/resources/family-educational-rights-and-privacy-act-ferpa>)

Disability Accommodations. Campus policy regarding disabilities requires that faculty adhere to the recommendations of Disability Services. Any student eligible for and needing academic adjustments or accommodations because of disability should submit to me a letter from Disability Services describing appropriate adjustments or accommodations and should arrange to meet with me as soon as possible so that
