Religious Observance

Campania's religious observance policy allows students to make effective arrangements and fulfill their obligations, have conflicts scheduled ahead of time, and avoid attendance. See the Campania's religious observance policy for full details.

Classroom Behavior

Students and faculty each have a responsibility for maintaining a safe learning environment. The school's policies on behavior and conduct must be followed. Personal conduct and especially in an individual and dealing with differences of race, color, religion, creed, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity and gender expression, age, disability, and nationality. Class members are identified by their current legal name. I will gladly help you add or change your name on your name tag. Please advise me if you have any concerns about your behavior and conduct.

Sexual Misconduct, Discrimination, Harassment, and/or Related Retaliation

The University of Central Florida (UCF) is committed to maintaining a safe learning, working, and living environment. UCF will not tolerate any form of sexual misconduct, discrimination, harassment, or retaliation against any individual. UCF's Sexual Misconduct Policy prohibits sexual harassment, sexual assault, intimate partner abuse (dating domestic violence), stalking, and sexual violence. UCF's Discrimination and Harassment Policy prohibits discrimination, harassment, and retaliation based on race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, ethnicity, and marital status. Individual students who believe they have been subjected to sexual misconduct or discrimination should
