

Attendance

Since this is a Summer class that moves at a highly accelerated pace, you are expected to attend every lecture, but since you are all (legally) adults, I do not require attendance. You are responsible for all material presented in lecture, so if you miss a class, it is your responsibility to connect with a classmate to get the notes that you missed, or meet with me or your TA at office hours to go over the missed material.

Grading

In-class Assignments	5%
Recitation	20%	(12% from quizzes, 8% from attendance)
Exam 1	25%
Exam 2	25%
Exam 3	25%

Students with Disabilities

If you qualify for accommodations because of a disability, please submit to me a letter from Disability Services in a timely manner so that your needs be addressed. Disability Services determines accommodations based on documented disabilities. Contact: 303-492-8671, Center for Community N200, and <http://www.Colorado.EDU/disabilityservices>. If you have a temporary medical condition or injury, see guidelines at <http://www.colorado.edu/disabilityservices/go.cgi?select=temporary.html>.

Religious Observance Policy

Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. If you have a conflict, please contact me at the beginning of the term so that we can make proper arrangements.

Classroom Behavior Policy

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Those
