By the end of the course, you should be able to:

There will be 14 Modules covered during our 8-week semester, equating to approximately 2 modules per week. You should proceed through each module in order which will be comprised of readings from course texts, supplemental class notes, graded discussions, homeworks, quizzes, exams, and various outside sources of information such as additional readings and video content, among other content.

Review the separate weekly class schedule found on Canvas under “Syllabus” link.

This course is designed to engage you mostly through exercises. However, there will also be class discussions on the topics covered in the course materials. It is important that you participate in class discussions to facilitate learning by other students and gain exposure to different viewpoints of other students in the class.

Course grades will be determined by the completion of assignments, exams, and discussions as shown below:

Assignment*
5	12	2	50	5.0%
2	At least 50	Any >50	100	10.0%

225	1	0	225	22.5%

During the summer we will cover two modules each week. The first module starts on Monday and the second module starts on Thursday. Each module will have the same types of assignments due and the due dates are

Who can be my proctor?

If you are in Boulder or nearby, you can take your exam:

- !" With me at the Department of Economics. There is no cost for using this proctor. This option is only on selected days during the exam period.
- #" At the University Testing Center on-campus in Boulder, CO. There may be a cost for using the testing center. This option is only available M-F during regular business hours.
- $" With Proctorio or a comparable online proctoring service as determined by your instructor. Online proctoring is a service that uses a webcam and microphone to ensure academic integrity. To use this service, you must have access to a computer with a webcam and a microphone. There is no cost for using this proctor.

If you outside of Boulder, you can take your exam:

- !" At an accredited college or university testing center in your town or nearby. There may be a cost for using this testing center.
- #" With Proctorio or a comparable online proctoring service as determined by your instructor. Online proctoring is a service that uses a webcam and microphone to ensure academic integrity. To use this service, you must have access to a computer with a webcam and a microphone. There is no cost for using this proctor.

All students should be aware that their behavior impacts other people, even online. I hope that we will all strive to
