

Workshop

Beyond Time: Unifying Temporal and Non-Temporal Uses of Aspectual Constructions

April 7 8, 2017

Each talk is 45 minutes, with 35 minutes for

James Pustejovsky, 'Mapping between
Claire Bonial, 'Choosing an Event Description: What a PropBank Study Reveals about the Contrast between Light Verb Constructions and Counterpart Synthetic Verbs'
Discussion, Martha Palmer (discussant)

Stephen Dickey, 'Epistemic Immediacy as a Common Denominator for Unauxiliated Preterits and Mirative Utterances in Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian: An Accessibility Approach'
Frank Brisard & Astrid De Wit, 'The Epistemic Meaning of the Progressive'
Discussion, Astrid De Wit & Frank Brisard (language change, extravagance, mirativity, epistemicity)
12h30 – 13h40: Lunch break, Treehouse Room, C4C dining center
Daniel Altshuler, 'Does Viewpoint Aspect Make Reference to Time?'
Jean-Pierre Koenig, 'Cross-Linguistic Variation in Event Realization'
John Beavers, 'Change-of-State in the Roots of Verbs: A Typological Study'
Laura Michaelis, 'Some Tenses are State Selectors and why this Matters for Conditional Uses'
General discussion