When someone expresses they have experienced a traumatic or disruptive experience, how we respond matters. It is important to be supportive.

In the moment:

- Take your friend seriously and believe them.
 - Check in about safety.
 - Listen and be open; do not minimize, blame or judge.
 - Follow their lead; avoid taking control or escalating.
 - Respect their need for privacy.
 - Support your friend in doing what they decide is best.

After they've shared:
